The Greatest Event in History is Now Unfolding...

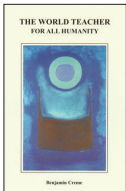

Benjamin Creme

Humanity's Elder Brothers, the Masters of Wisdom, with Maitreya the World Teacher at their head, are once again among us, poised to begin their public approach. As soon as humanity is ready to accept their guidance, they will work openly at our side, showing us how to live together in peace – with sharing, justice, and brotherhood as the keynotes of a new civilization.

The most dramatic changes the world has ever known will be brought about when we resolve to end the scourges of hunger, war, poverty and disease and restore ecological balance to the earth itself.

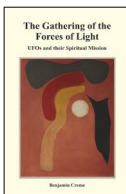

These changes, many now under way, will be implemented by humanity itself with the wise guidance and inspiration of the Masters. In 17 remarkable books, British author and futurist Benjamin Creme describes how the emergence of Maitreya and the Masters will affect our global society, as well as each of us as individuals.
